As of today there are 13 companies involved in agricultural publishing. Only 13 years ago, in 1990, The Gale Directory of Publications and Broadcast Media reported that there were 102 agricultural newspapers, 440 magazines, 1,025 AM stations, 803 FM stations, 14 state and 3 regional radio networks and 5 television stations.

The 13 companies involved in national publishing of agricultural materials are

- Farm Progress Companies
  Carol Stream, IL.
  www.farmprogress.com

- Meredith Publishing
  Des Moines, Iowa
  www.meredith.com

- Meister Publishing Company
  Willoughby, OH
  www.meisternet.com

- Doane Agricultural Services
  St. Louis, MO.
  www.doane.com

- Keller International Publishing Co.
  Great Neck, N.Y.
  www.kellerpubs.com

- High Plains Journal
  Dodge City, KS
  www.hpj.com

- Progressive Farmer
  Birmingham, AL
  www.progressivefarmer.com

- Hoard’s Dairymen
  Fort Atkinson, WI
  www.hoards.com

- PRIMEDIA Business Magazines & Media
  Minneapolis, MN
  www.primediabusiness.com

- Vance Publishing Corp.
  Lenexa, KS
  www.vance.com

- Sosland Publishing Company
  Kansas City, MO
  www.sosland.com

- Watt Publishing Company
  Mount Morris, IL
  www.wattnet.com

- Farm Journal Media
  Philadelphia, PA
  www.farmjournal.com