This 350-page publication contains selected materials from the 2005 Beef Cattle Short Course, including papers from the following seminars: Basic Ranch Management; Animal Breeding and Genetics: Mixing the Old and the New; Forage Management Workshops; Nutritional Management of Grazing Beef Cattle; Pesticide Applicator Training; General Sessions; Artificial Insemination in Today’s Beef Market; Beef Cattle Research in Texas; Beef Cattle Health; and additional Cattlemen’s College Workshops.

I want _______ copy or copies of the PROCEEDINGS at $50.00 per copy. Enclosed is my check for $_________ (check, credit card, or money order only, please).

Mail Request to: TAMU Beef Cattle Short Course Conferences
Drawer H-1
Aggieland Station
College Station, TX 77844
Attention: Joani Groce

[ ] Check Enclosed  Make Payment to TAMU BEEF CATTLE SHORT COURSE ACCOUNT 250291
[ ] Credit Card:  [ ] Visa  [ ] Mastercard  [ ] American Express  [ ] Discover

Card Issued To: ________________________________

Card Number: ___________________________  Expiration Date: ____________

Authorized Signature: ________________________________

Your name: ________________________________________

Mailing Address: ________________________________________

City, State, Zip: ________________________________

Telephone Number: ________________________________

Please Check One:  CD-ROM: ___________  Hard Copy: ___________