

Minor in Agricultural Communications and Journalism

Students seeking a minor in Agricultural Communications and Journalism should begin the process by discussing the option with their academic advisor in their major. Students must meet with an advisor in agricultural communications and journalism to discuss their interests and to arrange a time to take the program's entrance examination. The examination takes approximately 45 minutes to complete and is a prerequisite for establishing a minor in Agricultural Communications and Journalism. Call 862-3001 to arrange an appointment.

Course Requirements for AGCJ Minor:

Course Descriptor	Title	Credits
AGCJ 105	Introduction to Agricultural Communications	2
AGCJ 203	Agricultural Media Writing I	3
AGCJ 303	Agricultural Media Writing II	3
AGCJ 304	Editing for Agricultural Audiences	3
Core Electives	Select one course from the following:	3
AGCJ 305	Agricultural Publishing
AGCJ 306	Agricultural Public Relations
AGCJ 307	Electronic Media Production in Agricultural Communications
Professional Skills	Select one course from the following:	3
AGCJ 405	Agricultural Publication Production
AGCJ 406	Agricultural Public Relations Methods
AGCJ 407	Web Authoring in Agricultural Communications
Total Hours		17

Agricultural Communications and Journalism is highly focused on written communication. Interested students should consider their interest in writing before beginning the minor.